

NATIONAL PARTNERSHIP FOR WOMEN & FAMILIES

THURSDAY | JUNE 13 | 2019

OUR STRENGTH IS IN OUR UNITY

At the National Partnership for Women & Families we believe in a country where all women have the freedom to fulfill our dreams. We share a passion for creating a better world for all people no matter their race, religion, background or gender identity. We are committed to fighting for justice and against racism and all forms of oppression.

Our greatest strength lies in our understanding that women do not live our lives in silos. When we are paid equally and treated with respect and dignity at work, we have the means to provide for our families. When our role as caregivers is recognized, we create the space for men and all people to share equally in the work. And when we have access to culturally sensitive health care that listens to our needs and trusts us to make the best decisions about our own bodies, we create better outcomes for all families.

We do not stand alone in this fight. Our power as an organization lies in our ability to collaborate with allies who share our values. We know that we are stronger when we work together for the common good and that we can only achieve a more equitable country by building bridges and uniting communities rather than erecting walls and creating division.

Our movement is bolstered by the millions of women who are rising up around the country. They are demanding change, taking action and stepping up to claim the right to lead and reshape our country. We are emboldened by their passion and activism and we know our future is bright. With your help we will achieve the lasting change that all women and families deserve.

The National Partnership for Women & Families cordially invites you to join us for our 2019 Gala Dinner.
